"Treasure Hunt: Seeking First the Kingdom of God"

Synopsis: No question about it, Jesus made it pretty clear that being his disciple would be challenging. Anyone who reads the three short chapters in Matthew referred to as "The Sermon on the Mount" can tell that Jesus was raising the bar for those who really want to follow him. But there is reassurance. He says we need not be anxious. All we need do is "seek first God's kingdom and his righteousness" and our basic needs will be met. But what does it mean to seek the Kingdom of God? Just what is "The Kingdom of God" that the Bible talks about over and over? Practically speaking, just how do we go about seeking it? And, living in a state of grace, what do God and Jesus expect of us?
