

Spiritual Challenges in the Twenty-First Century

Bro. Kyle Tucker

Fakes news, LGBTQ, political correctness, the 24 hour news cycle, climate change, sexual harassment, social media, genetic modification, dating apps... The believer faces a strange new and ever-changing world. The only seeming constants in the world today are constant change and the depravity of mankind.

This study will focus on the believer's place in this new world and lessons from our unchangeable God on not only how to survive this world, but how to thrive in it.

The Bible promises us "the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding." Is that our experience in today's world?