

Anthony Green:

This week we will be looking back through history to help us shed some light on the Bible: it's books, history, culture and the authorial intent of its writers. We will also touch on the other significant points of Christian history from the early church through to the reformation.

From Books to Bible.

From Eden to Exile.

From Christ to Constantine.

From Rome to Reformation.

From Transaction to Transformation.